“Soul Man”

Soul Man celebrates the work of artists who wove an important musical genre in this country's tapestry and pays homage to the voices that helped to define a generation. America was in a turbulent place in the early 1960s and the times were reflected in the music of prominent soul and R&B singers. But, these artists helped to soothe our jittery and unsettled nation through their music. Soul Man audiences will hear some of the most recognizable tunes of the '60s, made popular by artists including Sam Cooke, Jackie Wilson, Sam & Dave, James Brown, Otis Redding, The Temptations, Solomon Burke, Ray Charles, and more.

Soul Man “is a hand-clapping, foot-stomping musical history lesson about the male singing stars of the 1960s.”

Jay Handelman, Herald-Tribune

“Soul Crooners”

Soul Crooners is a celebration of the music that ushered in a new era of soul during the 70's. The music was known for combining lush orchestrations with great vocalists who could sing unforgettable melodies and harmonies. The show features over 40 hit songs by an all-male ensemble. Among the featured songs are hits from artists that embodied this feel-good music, including The Stylistics, The Commodores, The O'Jays, Smokey Robinson, The Jackson 5, and Stevie Wonder.

“This isn’t just music, the choreography is perfectly planned to not only show that the talent can sing, but they can dance in a way that engages the viewer and makes you laugh.”

DAYLE HOFFMANN, Creative Minds Exposed

“The Sweet, Soulful 70’s”

“Soul Crooners 2 . . . is one part sing-along, one part 1970s soul show and one part love-in. The show itself was pure musical pleasure from start to finish. Five singers, five musicians and one phenomenally talented dancer rocked the house with music and moves by Al Green, the Stylistics, Donnie Hathaway, the Jackson Five, Marvin Gaye, Parliament Funkadelic, Bill Withers and more, more, more.”
